

I think it is ridiculous that our country is trying to silence the people of this country by allowing large companies to take over smaller radio and t.v stations.

We need to keep a voice in the community.